This internship program will offer you a chance to learn about crafting strategic communications, pitching reporters, and organizing media outreach. This is a great opportunity to learn more about communications in the progressive non-profit world, while making an impact on critical environmental and political issues.

Responsibilities Will Include:
- Pitching stories to the media
- Drafting and editing press materials
- Monitoring and compiling media coverage
- Attending and reporting on Congressional hearings
- Other individual projects as assigned

Willingness to take risks and manage own projects is a plus. Responsibilities will be tailored to personal skills and areas of interest.

Summer deadline: April 15
Fall deadline: July 15
Winter/Spring deadline: November 15

Qualifications:
The ideal candidate would be a self-motivated, energetic, strategic thinker with very strong written and verbal communication skills. Applicants should be current college students or recent college graduates. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

Minimum 20 hours scheduled at your discretion; full-time preferred. Class credit, scholarship, and travel stipend may be available. We are willing to provide any documentation necessary to help students get class credit.

To apply, email communications.internships@sierraclub.org and put “DC Internship” in the subject header.
