Do you think we need to take action on climate disruption?

Nah, I don’t need air to breathe.

Do you want your voice to be heard by the world leaders attending the United Nations Climate Summit in NYC at the same time?

Nah, oil spills are good for the economy.

Nah, I enjoy having massive fossil fuel companies running and ruining everything.

Do you think it’s time to switch from dirty fossil fuels to clean energy?

It’s time to switch from dirty fossil fuels to clean energy.

Clean energy is better for our wallets, our health, and the planet!

I make more than enough money to pay for the higher home insurance rates caused by climate disruption’s disasters.

I like my oceans like my lemons, super acidic.

Think it’s time the world joined together for climate action in the face of major climate-caused disasters?

I can’t wait to meet some new people!

It’s about time someone rattled their cages.

Yes, together we are stronger and we will make a difference.

Yes, I want to be able to tell future generations I did all I could.
